TERMS OF USE: EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION INTERNET USER AGREEMENT
(I.P. CONTROL)

These terms form part of the agreement between The Economist Intelligence Unit N.A. Incorporated ("EIU") and the client described on the attached schedule ("the Client") and refer to words defined below and in the attached schedule.

1. Definitions

"EIU Ltd" means The Economist Intelligence Unit Limited, a company affiliated with EIU.

"Publishers" means EIU Ltd and certain of its affiliates, who are the owners of the Licensed Information.

References to "educational purposes" in this Agreement mean the relevant Authorized User's own non-commercial purposes related to education, criticism, comment, teaching or research.

2. Scope of License

2.1 Permitted Uses. Authorized Users are permitted to print or download reasonable portions of the Licensed Information for their own educational purposes. Authorized Users may, in connection with their educational purposes, on an occasional and irregular basis, provide insubstantial portions of the Licensed Information to non-authorized users or in scholarly works, articles, memoranda, reports and presentations provided that (i) these insubstantial portions are only made available in print or by secure electronic means to a limited number of individuals and (ii) Client's Employees must include copyright notices from EIU and the Publishers and original source attribution whenever providing any portions of the Licensed Information to any other persons. Client may fulfill occasional requests from other institutions, a practice commonly called Interlibrary Loan, provided such requests are fulfilled in hard copy, not by electronic transmission. Client agrees to fulfill such requests in compliance with Section 108 of the United States Copyright Law (17 USC *108. "Limitations on exclusive rights: Reproduction by libraries and archives") and the Guidelines for the Proviso of Subsection 108 (2g) (2) prepared by the National Commission on New Technological Uses of Copyrighted Works.

Re: Archiving - The Client is allowed to make one back-up copy (in either print or electronic medium) of data from the electronic journal/volumes for the purpose of preservation of and/or the creation of a useable archive.

Re: Linking - Client may provide electronic links to the Licensed information from Client's web page(s), and is encouraged to do so in ways that will increase the usefulness of the Licensed information to Authorized Users. EIU staff will provide assistance to Client upon request in creating such links effectively. Client agrees to make changes in the appearance of such links and/or in statements accompanying such links as reasonably requested by EIU. EIU will also provide means for Client to link directly from records in Client's bibliographic computing systems to the content in the Licensed Information at the title, issue, and article levels, using standard internet communications and applications protocols, and such other methods as may be agreed to by EIU and the Client. Other than the creation of such links, Client shall not modify, manipulate, or create a Derivative Work of the Licensed Information without the prior written permission of EIU.

2.2 Prohibited Uses. The Client and the Authorized Users shall not knowingly allow any other person to use or share their password(s), or to allow an unauthorized user to have access to the Site. EIU reserves the right to terminate this Agreement, in the event of material, repeated or persistent unauthorized use of the site or licensed information. Any material breach of this restriction may result in temporary termination of access to the Site for the allegedly offending IP addresses or Authorized User(s). Except as permitted in clause 2.1 above, no portion of the Licensed Information may be reproduced or stored in or transmitted to any other web site, newsgroup, mailing list, or electronic bulletin board, or regularly or systematically stored in electronic or print form, without the prior written consent of EIU. Any use of the Licensed Information not specifically permitted by this Section 2 is expressly prohibited. Requests for permission for other uses may be sent to [REDACTED] Director, EIU Electronic, [REDACTED] and may be subject to a fee.

3. Intellectual Property Protection

The contents and design of the Site, and all materials distributed in conjunction with the Site, including documentation, are copyright of the Publishers (which for these purposes may include their suppliers). All rights are reserved. The Client is not permitted to use or reproduce or allow anyone to use or reproduce any trade marks or other trade names appearing on the Site or in the Licensed Information for any reason. The software which operates the Site is proprietary software and the Client is not permitted to use it except as expressly allowed under the terms of this Agreement. The software may not be copied, reverse engineered, modified or otherwise dealt with by the Client.

4. License Fee and Payment

The License Fee is subject to annual adjustment upon prior notice given by EIU to the Client. EIU shall render an invoice annually in advance to the Client for the amounts due, plus applicable federal, state, and local taxes. The Client shall remit all amounts due within thirty (30) days after receipt of invoice, in U.S. dollars.

5. Auditing

EIU reserves the right to monitor the record activity on the Site, including access to the Licensed Information, which information EIU shall convey to Client upon request.

6. Term and Termination

- 6.1 This Agreement shall automatically renew on an annual basis, unless: (i) either party gives the other party hereto not less than ninety (90) days' written notice of its intention to terminate prior to the renewal date of any given one year term, in which case the Agreement shall expire on such renewal date; or (ii) either party breaches a material provision of this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice of such breach, in which case the other party will have the right to terminate this Agreement immediately by giving written notice to the party in breach; or (iii) the Client gives EIU written notice of termination within thirty (30) days of receipt of an annual License Fee adjustment, in which case the Agreement shall expire on the relevant renewal date.
- 6.2 The rights of termination are in addition to all other rights or remedies of the parties provided in this Agreement or by law. In the event this Agreement is terminated, the Client's and the Authorized Users' right to access the Licensed Information via the Site will cease immediately.
- 6.3 Upon termination of this Agreement, Client shall be entitled to retain one copy (in either print or electronic medium) of the content previously licensed by and accessible to Client hereunder on a nonexclusive, royalty-free, perpetual license to use such content as permitted under this Agreement

7. No Warranty and Disclaimer of Liability

- 7.1 Whilst every effort has been made to ensure the high quality and accuracy of the Licensed Information, EIU makes no warranty, express or implied concerning the Licensed Information and the Site, and expressly disclaims all warranties, including but not limited to warranties of fitness for a particular purpose and warranties of merchantability. In no event will EIU or its affiliates be liable for direct, special, incidental, or consequential damages (including, without limitation, damages for loss of business profits, business interruption, loss of business information or other pecuniary loss) arising directly or indirectly from the use of (or failure to use) or reliance on the Licensed Information or the Site, even if EIU has been advised of the possibility that such damages may arise. EIU does not guarantee the accuracy, content, or timeliness of the Licensed Information.
- 7.2 Because some jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion or limitation of liability for consequential or incidental damages the above limitation or exclusion may not apply to the Client. Save as set out in Clause 7.3 below, in no event shall any liability of EIU, its affiliates, agents and licensors, if any, arising out of any kind of legal claim (whether in contract, tort, or otherwise) in any way connected with the Site or the Licensed Information exceed the amount paid by the Client to EIU under this Agreement in any 12 month period

- 7.3 EIU shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Client, their officers, agents and employees from all damages, liabilities, costs, fees, including, but not limited to, attorney's fees, resulting from any judgement or settlement agreement arising out of the claim of a third party that EIU's sale of products to Client or Client's use of said products in accordance herewith constitutes an infringement of any patent, copyright, trademark, trade name, trade secret, or other proprietary right of any third party, provided that:

- (i) Client shall give prompt notice of an infringement claim to EIU;
- (ii) Client shall provide such cooperation and assistance to EIU as is reasonably necessary to defend the claim;
- (iii) Client shall allow EIU to have sole control of the defense, provided, however, that Client retains the right to participate in the defense at its own expense;
- (iv) EIU shall not be responsible for any compromise made by Client or its agents without EIU's consent.

NO LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SET FORTH ELSEWHERE IN THIS AGREEMENT IS APPLICABLE TO THE INDEMNIFICATION SET OUT IN THIS CLAUSE 7.3.

Re: Dual License – No notice, statement or disclaimer displayed to Authorized Users through the publisher's web site or by other means shall supercede, limit, or otherwise modify the provisions of this Agreement.

8. Security

The Client agrees to notify EIU as soon as possible if it becomes aware of any unauthorized use of the Licensed Information or the Site.

The parties shall cooperate in the implementation of additional security procedures as they are developed.

9. Force Majeure

EIU, its affiliates, and its information providers shall not be liable or deemed to be in default for any delay or failure in performance or interruption of the delivery of Licensed Information resulting directly or indirectly from any cause or circumstance beyond its or their reasonable control, including but not limited to failure of electronic or mechanical equipment or communication lines, telephone or other interconnect problems, computer viruses, unauthorized access, theft, severe weather, earthquakes, or natural disasters, strikes or other labor problems, wars, or governmental restrictions.

10. Taxes

The Client shall be responsible for the proper payment of all taxes, which may be levied or assessed, based on the Client's use of the Licensed Information, the Site, or on any payments by the Client to EIU hereunder, other than EIU's income taxes.

11. Amendment

This Agreement may only be amended or modified by express written consent of both parties hereto.

12. Miscellaneous

12.1 Assignment of Agreement. This Agreement is personal to the parties and the rights and obligations of the parties may not be assigned or otherwise transferred without written consent of both parties hereto.

12.2 Non-Waiver. No delay or omission on the part of either party in requiring performance by the other party of its obligations will operate as a waiver of any right.

- 12.3 Notices. Notices shall be given in writing by letter and shall be sent to the intended recipient's last known place of business (i) for EIU, in New York (for the attention of Lou Celi, Managing Director, EIU Electronic) and (ii) for the Client, at the Client address for the attention of the Client contact set out in this Agreement. Such letters shall be deemed received on the date of dispatch if sent by fax (or on the following business day, if sent after the recipient's normal business hours) or on the expiry of 2 business days from the date of posting if sent by overnight post.
- 12.4 No Joint Venture. No joint venture, partnership, employment, or agency relationship exists between the Client and EIU as a result of this Agreement or the Client's use of the Licensed Information or the Site.
- 12.5 Severability/Survival/Statute of Limitations. If any provision of this Agreement shall be invalid or unenforceable, such shall not render the entire Agreement unenforceable or invalid but rather the Agreement shall be read and construed as if the invalid or unenforceable provision(s) are not contained therein, and the rights and obligations of the parties shall be construed and enforced accordingly. Any cause of action with respect to this Agreement must be filed in a court of competent jurisdiction in California within one year after the cause of action has arisen, or such cause shall be barred, invalid, and void.
- 12.6 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between EIU and the Client and any terms implied by law which may be excluded by contract are excluded.
- 12.7 Authority. Each party represents and warrants to the other that it has full power and authority to enter into and perform this Agreement, and that the person signing this Agreement on behalf of each party has been properly authorized and empowered to enter into this Agreement.
- Re: Completeness of Content – EIU shall use reasonable efforts to ensure that the online content is equivalent to EIU print journals, represents complete, faithful and timely replications of the print versions of such journals, and will cooperate with the Client to identify and correct errors or omissions.
- Re: Server Availability – EIU shall use reasonable efforts to provide continuous service 7 days a week with an average of 98% up-time per month. The 2% down-time includes scheduled maintenance and repair. Scheduled down-time will be performed at a time to minimize inconvenience to customer's world-wide.
- 12.8 The Client shall make reasonable efforts to keep confidentiality to the University of California the business arrangements between UC and EIU stemming from this Agreement, including the license fee. To the extent permitted by law, the Client shall make reasonable efforts to protect the license fee from being revealed to third parties. Such efforts shall extend to marking relevant documents as "Confidential to UC" and informing relevant UC staff of the sensitive nature of this information.

13. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the United States of America without reference to the choice of law provisions thereof. Both parties irrevocably agree to submit to the personal jurisdiction and venue of the federal and state courts presiding in California.
