VIII. LICENSEE PERFORMANCE OBLIGATIONS

XI. EARLY TERMINATION

In the event that either party believes that the other materially has breached any obligations under this Agreement, or if Licensor believes that Licensee has exceeded the scope of the License, such party shall so notify the breaching party in writing. The breaching party shall have sixty (60) days from the receipt of notice to cure the alleged breach and to notify the non-breaching party in writing that cure has been effected. XII. PERPETUAL LICENSE AND ARCHIVAL RIGHTS

Perpetual License. Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, Licensor hereby grants to Licensee a nonexclusive, royalty-free, perpetual license to use any Licensed Materials that were accessible during the term of this Agreement. Such use shall be in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, which provisions shall survive any termination of this Agreement. The means by which Licensee shall have access to such Licensed Materials shall be in a manner and form substantially equivalent to the means by which access is provided under this Agreement. Licensee will continue to have full online access to materials licensed in previous years but lost due to cessation, sale, or substitution by Licensee, providing that Licensor retains the right to distribute content. Licensor will make reasonable efforts to retain a non-exclusive copy of the volumes published by Springer and make them available to Licensee.

Springer agrees to provide continuing access to previously subscribed content for as long as Springer retains rights to do so and the Licensee remains a Party to this Agreement (i.e. the Licensee retains subscribed access to some portion of the Licensed Materials under the terms of this Agreement).

In the event that Licensee terminates this Agreement and thereby discontinues paid access to Springer Published Content, Springer shall provide continuing access to Licensee and its Authorized Users to that portion of the Subscribed Licensed Materials which was published within the subscription year(s) for four (4) additional years, with continuing access in subsequent years to be arranged according to the following options available to Licensee: 1) Licensee may elect to receive an archival digital copy on a mutually agreed-upon digital storage medium for a nominal service plus handling fee, and/or 2) Licensee may elect to pay a negotiated fee per title per year for ongoing online access to the Licensed Materials. The foregoing shall be provided as long as Licensee continues to observe its obligations with respect to security and restriction on usage set forth in this Agreement and as provided under applicable law.

Springer will not provide full text files or media for the Non-subscribed Materials listed in Attachment 3.2, though the Licensee may elect to pay a negotiated maintenance fee per title per year for online access to the previously accessible years of such Non-subscribed Materials from Springer.

In the event that there cease to be rights holders for the Licensed Materials, Springer has provided for ongoing public access to the content through agreements with a selection of libraries situated throughout the world.
